Eating on a budget: Cheap restaurants in Denmark [1]

Denmark is a country packed full of all kinds of restaurants for all price ranges. Use our restaurant search to the right to find great food at great prices or read on to see a list of Bib Gourmand restaurants. This award is given to restaurants with exceptional food offered at reasonable prices.

Eating outdoors

If you want to save on your food budget, we recommend you buy your food and drinks in local shops or supermarkets. And if the weather permits, you could go for a picnic in green surroundings. Several attractions even offer designated picnic areas, often covered, where you can enjoy your food.

Eating on a budget in a restaurant

Despite being home to several world-renowned restaurants, Denmark also has many great places to eat that won't break the bank. The following restaurants have been awarded the Bib Gourmand, given internationally to exceptional restaurants with reasonable prices.
